48 HOURS MYSTERY

- 01/03/09 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Betrayal" - an update of a report on the September 3, 2006 disappearance of Nina Reiser, a Russian doctor who had married Hans Reiser, an American computer whiz. The couple had two children, but their marriage began to fall apart and Nina began an affair with Sean Sturgeon, Hans' best friend. Embroiled in a nasty custody fight, Nina dropped off the children at Hans' house on Labor Day weekend and then mysteriously vanished. Her body had never been found. After investigation, Hans was arraigned on murder charges five weeks after Nina's disappearance, and one year later, went on trial for her murder. After three days of deliberation, the jury found him guilty of first degree murder and he was sentenced to 25 years to life. Update for this rebroadcast: In the summer of 2008, Hans Reiser offered to lead police to Nina's body in exchange for a reduced verdict and reduced time in prison. The police agreed; Hans led them to her remains, which he had buried just half a mile from his house. As part of the deal, Hans was required to provide a detailed confession of how he murdered Nina, and his voice is heard describing how he strangled her. One month later, the verdict against Hans was lowered to murder in the second degree, and sentenced him to 15 years to life. Graphic updates: Nina Reiser was buried in St. Petersburg, Russia. Her children will remain in Russia with Nina's mother. Hans Reiser will be eligible for parole in 2021. He will be 58 years old. - 01/10/09 48 HOURS SPECIAL PRESENTATION: "Stolen Beauty" - a report on the October 2005 disappearance of Tara Grinstead, an 11th grade history teacher and beauty pageant queen from Ocilla, Georgia -- and a similar case three months later, in January 2006, involving Jennifer Kesse, a financial analyst from Orlando, Florida, who disappeared after she returned home from a vacation in St. Croix with her boyfriend. This account includes background details, surrounding circumstances, and the consideration of a possible link between the two cases, as well as information regarding the ongoing investigation by the Georgia Bureau of Investigation and the Orlando Police Department. Among those interviewed are: Connie Grinstead, Tara's stepmother; Gary Rothwell, special agent with the Georgia Bureau of Investigation; Rob Allen, Jennifer's boyfriend; several members of Jennifer's family; Sergeant Roger Brennan and Detective Joel Wright of the Orlando Police Department. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Katherine Davis). (OAD: 07/01/08 as 48 HOURS VANISHED: "Stolen Beauty")
- 01/17/09 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Peace, Love And Murder" - A report on the murder of housewife Toni Heartsong, killed in her Jupiter, Florida home on September 26, 2000. That day, police received a phone call from her husband Bob Heartsong saying that he had come home from work to discover her dead body, brutally bludgeoned and stabbed. For various reasons, Bob was initially eliminated as a possible suspect, but in 2006, new DNA technology revealed the presence of his blood under Toni's thumbnail and his DNA on her hand. He was arrested, and in 2008 he was tried for her murder. The blood evidence presented by the prosecution was deemed inconclusive, and the jury rendered a verdict of not guilty. Among those interviewed are: Barry Soren, Toni's brother; her cousins Mel and Sandra Sorkowitz, Deb Schepp, Elissa LeJeune; Toni's sons Eli and Jake Heartsong; Florida State investigator Tim Valentine; Steve Kochakian, a former employee of Bob Heartsong; Suzye Goldstein, Bob Heartsong's new wife; Palm Beach County police John Van Houten, Bill Springer; prosecutor Barbara Burns; defense attorney Barry Maxwell; jury foreman Tony Alberto. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

- 01/24/09 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Lady In The Harbor" - A report on the September 2006 murder of aspiring actress Barbara Mullenix, whose body was discovered in the water at the Newport Harbor Yacht Club in California. She had been stabbed fifty-two times. An initial suspect was her ex-husband, Bruce Mullenix. Despite their divorce, Bruce had agreed to let Barbara and their 17-year-old daughter Rachael move into his small Huntington Beach apartment, a situation that worsened when Barbara would drink and become verbally abusive. But Bruce was soon ruled out as a suspect because he had been out of town on a business trip. Investigators' attention then turned to Rachael and her 21-year-old boyfriend, Ian Allen, who were nowhere to be found after the murder. When they were finally apprehended and questioned, Ian admitted to killing Barbara, and Rachael was also accused of the murder. Both Ian And Rachael were tried separately. Each was found guilty of first degree murder, and each was sentenced to 25 years to life. Includes interviews with Bruce Mullenix; Rachael Mullenix; Newport police investigators Steve Mack and Joe Cartwright; Kelsey Douglas, friend of Rachael Mullenix; Sonia Balleste, Orange County prosecutor; David Cohn, Rachel's attorney; Sean Enloe, pathologist; Dr. Al Ravitz, child psychiatrist. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Ira Sutow, Allen Alter)
- 01/31/09 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Conspiracy To Kill" - A report on the suspiciously similar circumstances surrounding the deaths, 19 years apart, of the two husbands of Sonia Rios, who herself was later murdered. Rios, a native of the Philippines, first married Earl Bourdeau, a U.S. Marine whom she met in the Philippines. They settled in Lomita, California. After a stormy 21-year marriage, Earl wanted a divorce. But before Sonia would grant him one, she demanded that he go to the Philippines by himself to sell a family taxi business. Earl went, and, in August 1987, while sleeping on the couch in the home of Sonia's relatives, he was shot in the head at point-blank range. In 1990, Sonia then married Navy Commander Larry Risken. By 2006, their marriage had deteriorated, and Larry wanted a divorce. Sonia consented, but only if Larry went alone on a long-planned trip to the Philippines to visit two of Sonia's young relatives of whom he was very fond. He made the trip, and in April 2006 Larry was killed in the parking lot of a hospital there. One year later, in April 2007, Sonia herself was shot to death in her Lomita, California home. Both Earl and Larry's families are convinced that Sonia had both of her husbands murdered for their insurance money. But the murders of both men -- and the murder of Sonia Rios -- remain unsolved. Includes interviews with Sherry Jackson, sister of Larry Risken; Dennis Bourdeau, brother of Earl Bourdeau; Larry Altman, crime reporter; Henry Hoskins, friend of Sonia Rios; Bong Oteza, private investigator; Mike Rodriguez, L.A. County Sheriff's detective; Dr. Rachel Fortun, forensic pathologist. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Joe Halderman, Sara Rodriguez)

"Coldplay" - a profile of the British rock group, Coldplay, who provide a rare look inside their world, which includes a candid interview with frontman and singer Chris Martin. Also interviewed: guitarist Jonny Buckland, bass player Guy Berryman and drummer Will Champion. (C: Steve Kroft - P: John Hamlin)
- 02/15/09 "Buy American" - a report on the "buy American" clause included in the economic stimulus package passed by Congress this week. Fought hard for by the steel industry, it mandates that any infrastructure project paid for with stimulus dollars must use steel made in the USA and not cheaper imports. American businesses that export overseas now worry foreign governments will retaliate and keep U.S. products out of their market, thus hurting their business. Interviewed: Dan Dimicco, CEO of Nucor, the United States' biggest steel maker; Doug Jellison, Nucor plant manager; cold saw operator Jeremy Davis; and Jim Owens, CEO of Caterpillar. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shachar Bar-On)
"World of Trouble" - Paul Bishop was a mortgage salesman at the San Francisco branch of World Savings of California, the United States' second largest savings and loan. In an interview, he recounts how - three years before the housing market crash - he warned his superiors that many of the mortgages they were granting were misleading and predatory. This practice contributed to the eventual self-destruction of the mortgage industry, setting off an economic collapse that ruined the finances of millions of Americans. Also interviewed: Betty Townes, financially ruined after being sold a series of World Savings mortgages she couldn't afford; Maeve-Elyse Brown, lawyer for a non-profit group working to save homeowners from foreclosure; and Bob Simpson, whose company, IMARC, investigates failed mortgages. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Graham Messick)
"War In Pakistan" - a report on the conflicts in Pakistan, featuring an interview with President Asif Ali Zardari. The Muslim nation, whose support is critical to the U.S. mission in Afghanistan, is not only broke and embroiled in another crisis with its arch enemy India, it's also now at war with Muslim extremists trying to destroy the government. This growing insurgency, run by the Taliban and al Qaeda, is threatening the stability of a key U.S. ally that is believed to have as many as a hundred nuclear weapons. Also interviewed: General Tariq Khan, commander of Pakistan's forces in the tribal territories; Bruce Riedel, a senior fellow at the Brookings Institute, who has spent thirty years as a CIA analyst and has advised President Barack Obama on the situation in Pakistan; and Khalid Khawaja, former Pakistani intelligence officer and friend of Osama bin Laden. "The Drinking Age" - an examination of the debate over lowering the legal drinking age from 21 to 18, a controversial idea embraced by some and roundly criticized by groups such as Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD). Includes interviews with: John McCardell, former president of Middlebury College in Vermont, who started the movement dedicated to lowering the drinking age back to 18; Mark Beckner, Chief of Police, Boulder, Colorado; Leslie and Michael Lanahan, mother and stepfather of University of Colorado freshman Gordie Bailey, who died of alcohol poisoning when he underwent a Chi Psi fraternity initiation; and Chuck Hurley, Executive Director of MADD. (C: Leslie Stahl - P: Ruth Streeter)

"Kidnapped in Basra" - a report on the war in Iraq, featuring an interview with CBS News producer/cameraman Richard Butler, who was kidnapped in Basra in 2008. At that time, the southern city was in total chaos, at the mercy of warring Shiite factions -- many of whom were taking their orders from Iran and Hezbollah. In one of the first major Iraqi-led military missions since the United States invasion, Iraqi troops, along with their U.S. counterparts, invaded the city, took control, and rescued Butler, leading to an understanding that the new Iraqi government could successfully combat the militias. Also includes an interview with Colonel Peter Mansoor, former executive officer to America's top commander in Iraq. (C: Lara Logan - P: Peter Klein)

"The Mascot" - an interview/profile of Alex Kurzem, who at the age of six watched his family being shot by the Nazis. Born Elia Solomonovich Kalperin in Koidanov, Belorussia, he decided to flee into the forest the morning his Jewish family was to be exterminated and survived there for months, before being captured by Nazi soldiers, who not knowing he was Jewish, made him the youngest corporal in the Nazi army. After the war, he migrated to Australia, married and had his own family, but did not reveal his true identity -- a secret he kept for more than fifty years. Though unable to remember his true identity, with help from his son, he was able to rediscover his past, the fate of his family, and meet a half-brother he didn't even know existed. 48 HOURS MYSTERY

02/07/09

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "An Invisible Enemy" - a follow-up to "An Invisible Enemy" (OAD: 12/08/07). In January 2007, Cynthia Sommer was convicted of murdering her Marine Sgt. husband Todd in February 2002 with a lethal dose of arsenic. But ten months after her conviction, she was granted a new trial because of questions about the validity of the lab tests that found arsenic in some of Todd Sommer's tissue samples but not in others. His tissue samples were now sent to another lab to be tested for arsenic -- and none was found. Because of this, the prosecution concluded that there was a reasonable doubt; murder charges against Cynthia Sommer were dropped, and the case was dismissed. However, Todd Sommer's death is still officially listed as a homicide, and the court left open the possibility that Cynthia Sommer could be charged again. Interviewed are: Cynthia Sommer; Jan Lippert, Cynthia's mother; Allen Bloom, Cynthia Sommer's new defense attorney; Mark Ridley, Naval Criminal Investigative Service special agent; Rob Terwilliger, a second NCIS special agent; Bonnie Dumanis, San Diego District Attorney; Dr. Lee Cantrell, toxicologist; Dr. Glenn Wagner, medical examiner; Eva Stoner, military police officer; Al Poklis, arsenic expert. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

- 02/14/09 48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "The Year We Disappeared" - On August 31, 1979, John Busby, a Falmouth, Massachusetts police officer, was ambushed in his car by a gunman in a passing car who shot him point blank in the face with a shotgun. Although brutally wounded, Busby was able to write a note for police at the scene that said "Not an accident. Mel Reine." Melvin Reine, a convicted arsonist and suspected murderer of three people, was a local thug whose brother, John Reine, had been arrested by John Busby. For undetermined reasons, Melvin Reine had long intimidated the Falmouth police, and the attempted murder of John Busby was not aggressively investigated. Fearing for their safety, the Busby family moved to an undisclosed location in Tennessee. Twenty-four years after the shooting, in 2003, John Reine confessed to the police that his brother Melvin had indeed shot John Busby while he, Melvin, drove the car. However, because of the statute of limitations, the Reines will remain unpunished. Melvin is now institutionalized, in a state of dementia. John Busby and his daughter Cylin have written a memoir together, entitled "The Year We Disappeared". Includes narration by John Busby; Cylin Busby, his daughter; Kellie Collier-Driscoll, his niece; Polly Busby, his wife; Rick Smith, Falmouth police officer. (Producers: Chuck Stevenson, Liza Finley, Katherine Davis, Chris Young)
- 02/21/09 48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "River's Edge" - On January 8, 2000, college students Danielle Keener and Dan Zapp were on a date, walking along a river's edge outside York, Pennsylvania, when they were kidnapped at gunpoint by a man in a pick-up truck. The gunman put Dan in the back of the truck with his Rottweiler dog; he put Danielle in the passenger seat, where he then raped her. Afterwards, he then put them both out of the truck, and ordered them to walk down towards the river. From behind, he then shot them both in the face. Feigning death, they floated down the river, out of the gunman's view. They were soon picked up by a hunter, Pete Prowell, who was able to contact the police and get them to a hospital. Dan -- on a respirator and unable to speak -- wrote on a notepad what he remembered of the gunman and gave the police the clues they needed to find him. Police then tracked down and arrested William Babner for the crime. Six months after the shooting, Babner went on trial; he was convicted and sentenced to one-hundred and seventeen and a half to two-hundred and thirty five years in prison. Includes narration by Danielle Keener; Dan Zapp; Pete Prowell, the couple's rescuer; Brent Keener, Danielle's father; Elizabeth Martin, Danielle's college roommate; Dr. John Hankle, attending physician, York Hospital; Detective Doug Demangone, York police; Police Chief Darryl Albright; Police Captain Roland Camacho; Ed Paskey, York County Prosecutor. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

02/28/09

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Secret Life Of Paige Birgfeld" (9:00-10:00p) - A report on the June 28, 2007 disappearance of Paige Birgfeld, twice-divorced mother of three and a resident of Grand Junction, Colorado and the subsequent double-life uncovered by investigators following her disappearance. Following her 2006 divorce, Paige became the primary caregiver to her children and was described as such a devoted mother that the Mesa County Sheriff's Department was convinced she would never have left on her own accord. As friends and family searched for her; her car was found abandoned and on fire in an empty lot. Her first husband, Ron Beigler became the focus of the investigation, when it was learned that the two had been on a date the day of her disappearance, but Paige's friends and family were far more suspicious of the children's father, Rob Dixon, as she had a troubled history with him. After a thorough inquiry, both men had solid alibis. As the investigation continued, it was discovered that Paige was also known as Carrie, a high-priced escort. Her family suspected she had money issues. Investigators then began to believe Paige was murdered by one of her clients. Using her cell phone records, police began carefully looking at all of her clients and eventually honed in on one man, Lester Ralph Jones, an ex-con who had served time for kidnapping and assault. Authorities searched his home, but will not discuss what evidence they uncovered. Search dogs led investigators from Paige's car to an RV shop where Jones worked as a mechanic. Although authorities have zeroed in on Lester Ralph Jones, no charges have been filed and he denies any involvement. The lack of a body, coupled with Paige's secret life, have made it that much harder to prove anything beyond a reasonable doubt. Her friends and family continue their search. 48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "Black Wave" (10:00-11:00p) - In June 2005, John and Jean Silverwood of San Diego, California, along with their four children, were sailing around the world in their 55-foot catamaran when they struck a hidden reef. A massive wave then forced the 2,500 pound mast to fall on John Silverwood, pinning him to the deck and cutting right through his leg. Through the resourcefulness of his son, Ben, and his wife, Jean, John's blood loss was stopped, and the family was moved to a coral ledge about a hundred feet away from the boat. The signal from their emergency beacon, held by son Jack, enabled the Coast Guard Station in Alameda, California, to pinpoint their location - approximately 350 nautical miles west of Tahiti Papeete. They were finally rescued and John was transported to the hospital in Tahiti. Although his leg had to be amputated, John's life was saved. Includes individual narrations by Jean and John Silverwood and their children: Ben, Amelia, Camille and Jack; Ernie Delli Gatti of Coast Guard Search and Rescue. CBS NEWS SPECIALS

- 02/01/09 CBS REPORTS: "The Road to the White House" - a retrospective chronological review of Barack Obama's road to the presidency, incorporating never-before-seen footage along with video excerpts of previously aired 60 MINUTES segments, and unified with an original audio narrative by correspondent Steve Kroft, who was also the correspondent for all excerpted segments. Included are: (1) "The Road to the White House" (First Steps) - a look back at why 60 MINUTES chose to profile Barack Obama, a then-rising political phenomenon, who planned to announce his candidacy for the presidency on 02/10/07 (P: L. Franklin Devine, Michael Radutzky, Tom Anderson). (2) "The Road to the White House" (The Primaries) - after an enthusiastic beginning, Obama's campaign hit a wall, and on the eve of the primaries, he trailed Hillary Clinton by nearly 20 points. He learned to be a great candidate, and in Iowa, his organization outmaneuvered the Clinton campaign and achieved victory, shattering Senator Clinton's aura of inevitability. (P: L. Franklin Devine, Jennifer MacDonald). (3) "The Road to the White House" (Victory) - Obama went to the Democratic convention assured of the nomination and made history as the first African-American presidential nominee of a major political party. In the campaign, he was locked in a dead-heat with Republican rival John McCain, and eventually achieved an historic victory on election night, appearing that night to a cheering crowd in Chicago's Grant Park (no producers listed). (4) "The Road to the White House" (Looking Ahead) - after Obama's victory, he remained out of sight, getting briefings and conferring with his transition team. His first post-election interview was conducted by Steve Kroft, 12 days after the election, and included his wife, Michelle Obama. (P: L. Franklin Devine, Michael Radutzky). Excerpts were taken from the following previously aired segments: "Barack Obama" (OAD: 02/11/07); "Obama '08" (OAD: 02/10/08); "Ohio" (OAD: 03/02/08); "Obama -Biden '08" (OAD: 08/31/08); "The Candidates - Obama '08" (OAD: 09/21/08); "The Inner Circle" (OAD: 11/09/08); "The Next First Family" (OAD: 11/16/08). (OAD: 12/28/08 on 60 MINUTES)
- 02/24/09 CBS NEWS SPECIAL REPORT: "A Presidential Address To Congress" - live coverage of President Barack Obama's first address to a joint session of Congress since he took office. Includes: (1) President Obama's address; (2) The Republican response by Gov. Bobby Jindal (R-LA); and (3) Commentary by CBS News personnel, including results of a CBS News / Knowledge Networks poll of 500 Americans who watched the President's address and then responded to poll questions online. CBS News Correspondents: Katie Couric (anchor, Washington studio); Bob Schieffer; Chip Reid (White House); Nancy Cordes (Capitol Hill); Anthony Mason; Jeff Greenfield (Los Angeles). 60 MINUTES

03/01/09

"The Man Who Knew" - an interview with Harry Markopolos, a Boston financial analyst and fraud investigator who repeatedly told the Securities and Exchange Commission that Wall Street financier Bernard L. Madoff's investment fund was a fraud. He was ignored, and investors lost billions of dollars. Also interviewed: former Madoff customers Shelly Ludlow and Len Forrest, who lost their investments; and Attorney David Boies. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Andy Court, Keith Sharman)

"The War Next Door" - a report on the drug cartel fueled violence in Mexico, where kidnappings, torture, and brutal beheadings have become common. President Felipe Calderon has declared war on the well-armed gangs, whose military-quality weapons come mostly from U.S. dealers. Interviewed: Janet Napolitano, U.S. Secretary of Homeland Security; Claudia Wallace and Maria Isabel, whose brother/son Hugo was kidnapped and killed by a gang; Mexico's Attorney General Eduardo Medina-Mora; Sandra Avila Beltran, one of Mexico's most famous alleged drug traffickers. (C: Anderson Cooper - P: Kyra Darnton, Anya Bourg, Ana Real)

"Bobby Jindal" - an interview/profile of Louisiana Governor Bobby Jindal, who gave the Republican response to President Obama's address to Congress on February 24th. Also interviewed: Jim Amoss, editor of the New Orleans Times Picayune; Supriya Jindal, Bobby's wife; and Newt Gingrich, former Republican Speaker of the House. (C: Morley Safer - P: Deirdre Naphin Curran, Katy Textor)

Andy Rooney Topic: "Andy Ponders The Months" - What are your favorite months? Andy has some opinions on the topic

03/08/09

"Your Bank Has Failed" - an examination of what happens when a bank fails, as 60 MINUTES is granted exclusive access to the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation's takeover of Heritage Community Bank in Glenwood, Illinois -- a Chicago suburb. Interviewed: Sheila Bair, Chairman of the FDIC; Cheryl Bates, Arthur Cook, Rickey McCullough, FDIC agents; Audrey and Bill Hess, Heritage Community Bank customers; and Mitchell Feiger, CEO of MB Financial, which bought Heritage. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Henry Schuster)

"Eyewitness" - a report on the case of Ronald Cotton, a North Carolina man who was twice falsely convicted of raping Jennifer Thompson on the strength of her eyewitness testimony. Years later he was exonerated due to DNA testing -- and forgave his accuser. Memory experts demonstrate how easy and how common it is for eyewitnesses to make inaccurate identifications. Interviewed: Jennifer Thompson; Ronald Cotton; Detective Mike Gauldin; Rich Rosen, law professor and Cotton's attorney; memory experts Gary Wells, Professor of Psychology at Iowa State University and Elizabeth Loftus, Professor of Psychology and Law at the University of California Irvine. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shari Finkelstein) (DOUBLE-LENGTH SEGMENT)

Andy Rooney Topic: "Where Have The Heroes Gone?" - Andy discusses modern-day heroism or the lack thereof and recalls the abundance of heroes from years past

03/15/09

"The Chairman" - in a rare interview with a sitting Federal Reserve Chairman, the first in twenty years, Ben Bernanke talks about what went wrong with America's financial system, how it caused the current economic crisis, what the Federal Reserve is doing to help fix it and when he expects the crippling recession to end. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Part I - Henry Schuster, Part II - Henry Schuster and Rebecca Peterson) (DOUBLE-LENGTH SEGMENT)

"Alice Waters" - an interview with Alice Waters, who has been cooking and preaching the virtues of fresh food grown in an environmentally friendly way for decades. A world-class restaurant -- Chez Panisse in Berkeley, California -- and eight cookbooks to her credit, Waters has become famous for her "slow food" approach, an antidote to fast food. Also interviewed: San Francisco Mayor Gavin Newsom; and John Lagier, farmer. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Ruth Streeter)

Andy Rooney Topic: "Andy Rooney's Daily Pleasure" - Life for Andy wouldn't be the same without his daily ration of newspapers

48 HOURS MYSTERY

- 03/07/09 48 HOURS MINI-MYSTERY: "Written In Blood" - a six-part, edited version of "Written In Blood" (OAD: 09/25/04; OAD - expanded version: 08/06/05 as "Perfectly Executed") - a report on the brutal 1994 murders of the Rafay family in Bellevue, Washington, and the subsequent arrest and conviction of Atif Rafay, the only surviving family member, and his friend Sebastian Burns. Correspondent: Peter Van Sant. The six separate segments are spaced and aired within the two-hour program block of the CBS Entertainment series CRIMETIME SATURDAY: CSI:CRIME SCENE INVESTIGATION and WITHOUT A TRACE. Each of the six segments of this serialized version is approximately two-to-three minutes in duration. The cumulative duration is approximately 16 minutes.
- 03/07/09 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Picture Perfect" - On June 9, 2008, 30-year-old Travis Alexander, a successful businessman and devout Mormon, was found murdered in his Mesa, Arizona home. He had been shot and then repeatedly stabbed. For a little more than a year, he had been involved with Jodi Arias, an aspiring photographer whom he had met at a business conference. She adopted his Mormon beliefs, which forbid premarital sex -- but they did become sexually involved. Although they supposedly ended their relationship when Jodi found out that Travis was interested in some other girls, Jodi then moved to Mesa. Police investigation of the murder scene recovered a digital camera with electronically dated, sexually explicit photos Travis and Jodi had taken of themselves -- and photos of Travis during the time he was being killed or soon after. When confronted by police, Jodi claimed that two masked intruders had broken in to Travis' home and murderously assaulted him -- but that she was able to escape. She did not call anyone for help, and told no one of the assault. Five days later, Travis was found dead by his roommates. Further police investigation resulted in the arrest of Jodi Arias on charges of first-degree murder. Her trial will take place sometime in 2010. Includes interviews with Jodi Arias; Chris and Sky Hughes, friends of Travis Alexander; Samantha and Steve Alexander, Travis' sister and brother; Travis' friends Taylor Searle, Brint Hiatt, and Aaron Mortenson; Esteban Flores, detective, Mesa Police Department. (C: Maureen Maher - P: Josh Gelman, Paul Ryan)
- 03/14/09 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Toxic" - On December 2, 2000, 30-year-old Eric Miller died in a Raleigh, North Carolina hospital. Blood tests had revealed that he had been poisoned with arsenic. Police investigation discovered that Eric's wife, Ann, a chemist, was having an affair with Derril Willard, a biochemist who worked at the same company as she. On the day after police initially questioned him about Eric's death, Derril Willard committed suicide. Prior to doing so, he had a confidential conversation with his lawyer, Rick Gammon. Years passed -- and in the spring of 2004, the North Carolina Supreme Court ruled that Gammon must reveal what Willard had told him about Ann's role in Eric's murder. Gammon then revealed how Ann admitted to Derril Willard that she had injected a substance into Eric's IV bag...and Willard had told Gammon that he himself had never tried to kill Eric. Ann Miller was charged with Eric's murder. Because the District Attorney and the Miller family had misgivings about the outcome of a trial, Ann was offered a plea bargain: twenty-five years in prison for Eric's murder. She accepted. Among those interviewed are: Lieutenant Chris Morgan, Raleigh, N.C. Police Department; Doris and Versus Miller, Eric's parents; Pam Baltzell and Leeann Magee, Eric's sisters; Renee Henson, Ann Miller's college roommate; Deborah Regentin, detective, Raleigh, N.C. Police Department; Yvette Willard, widow of Derril Willard; Michael Teague, forensic psychologist; Rick Gammon, attorney for the late Derril Willard. (C: Troy Roberts - P: Patti Aronofsky)

- 03/21/09 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Point Blank" - Traci and Scott Rhode had been together for twenty years and were the parents of three sons. Traci was a nurse. Scott, a jealous man, suspected his wife of having affairs with the different doctors she worked with, and moved the family five times in thirteen years, finally ending up in Brownsville, Texas. There Traci met Shawn Michaels, the unit secretary at the hospital where she worked. She claimed Michaels was only a friend, but Scott took Traci to a lawyer's office and said that he was getting a divorce and would have custody of the boys. On the day after that -- October 15, 2003 -- Scott died from a gunshot wound to the head in the couple's Brownsville, Texas home. Traci claimed that Scott shot himself and that she found him. After a two year investigation, Traci was arrested for his murder. Throughout it all, Traci maintained that she was innocent. At her trial, the jury found her guilty. Under Texas law, the defense has the option of letting the jurors decide the punishment as well as the verdict. Traci's lawyer opted for a jury sentence, and, after hearing her testimony and that of her two oldest boys, the jury allowed her to be released on ten years probation. Includes interviews with: Traci Rhode; Vicki Lair, Traci's mother; Sam Lucio, detective, Brownsville, Texas Police Department; Nat Perez, Scott Rhode's divorce lawyer; Raina Kant, friend of the Rhodes; J.D. Robertson, Texas Ranger; Jim Odabashian, Traci Rhode's pastor; Chuck Mattingly, prosecutor, Brownsville, Texas; Sergeant Pablo Flores, Brownsville police; Richard Ernest, forensic criminalist; Ernesto Gamez, Traci Rhode's lawyer; Xavier Lopex, juror. (C: Harold Dow - P: Liza Finley) (OAD: 05/17/08; Includes brief updated text graphic at the conclusion.)
- 03/28/09 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Memory of Murder" - In November 2004, Bethlehem, New York couple Peter and Joan Porco were brutally attacked in their bed with an ax. Peter died at the scene. Joan survived and, although initially unable to speak because of her wounds, she nodded "yes" when a detective on the scene asked her if her son Christopher was their attacker. Afterwards, when she had recovered from the attack, Joan said she doesn't recall that nod and that Christopher is innocent. 48 HOURS follows the police investigation into the case, leading to Christopher Porco's trial and conviction. Includes interviews with: Mike McDermott, chief prosecutor, Albany County; Chris Bowdish, detective; Christopher Porco; David Rossi, prosecutor; Laurie Shanks, lawyer; Terry Kindlon, lawyer; Dr. Mary Dombovy, neurologist. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Patti Aronofsky, Katherine Davis) (OAD: 11/04/06; 1st rebroadcast: 06/26/07 - Includes an update. 2nd rebroadcast of 03/28/09 includes a new, brief graphic update.)
